Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

- ☐ Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

- ☐ Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Debtor understands that it is Debtor's responsibility to complete an instructional course concerning personal financial management ASAP. After completion of the instructional course, Debtor has agreed to tender a signed certificate of completion to the Schaller Law Firm, P.C. by Federal Express. Debtor has also agreed to file the signed certificate of completion with the Clerk of the US Bankruptcy Court at 219 S. Dearborn, Chicago, IL 60604, unless a copy of said certificate is tendered to the Schaller Law Firm, P.C. by Federal Express and received at least 7 days prior to the case being closed. Debtor understands further that no discharge will be granted without the filing of said signed certificate of completion with the Clerk of the US Bankruptcy Court before the deadline. Time is of the essence.

NOTICE TO INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR(S) IN CHAPTER 7 CASES OF REQUIREMENT TO FILE A STATEMENT OF COMPLETION OF COURSE IN PERSONAL FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, you must complete an instructional course in personal financial management in order to receive a discharge under Chapter 7 (11 USC Sec. 727). Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007(b)(7), you must complete, sign, and file Debtor's Certification of Completion of Instructional Course Concerning Personal Financial Management (Official Form 23) as described in 11 USC Sec 111. Please attach the certificate you received from the Debtor's Education Provider to the signed Official Form 23.

You must file Official Form 23 within 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under Section 341. If you do not file Official Form 23, your case will be closed without a discharge. You will still be liable for the debts you owed before filing. If you subsequently file a Motion to Reopen, you must pay the reopening fee.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

	$245	filing fee
	$75	administrative fee
+	$15	trustee surcharge
	$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

Re: CHAPTER 7 ENGAGEMENT LETTER

Dear Alan:

READ THIS AGREEMENT AND THE ATTACHED DOCUMENTS CAREFULLY 3 TIMES BEFORE SIGNING. DO NOT SIGN IF YOU ARE CONFUSED BY ANY TERM OR OBLIGATION.

My policy at the outset of a new engagement is to outline not only the nature of the project, but also the basis on which I will provide legal services and bill for them.

1. Compensation: You agree to prepay the Schaller Law Firm ("Firm") a flat, fixed-fee of $2,100 for the Chapter 7 services set forth in the paragraph labeled "Scope of Flat-Fee Engagement," after any and all discounts. Plus, you agree to prepay to the Firm the following: (1) petition filing fee of $335; (2) credit report fee of $38 per debtor; and (3) any other costs. Please note that any payment received by the Firm shall be treated as an advance payment, allowing the Firm to take the retainer into income immediately. The reason for this treatment is that (a) the total payment for the services identified in paragraph No. 1 above is anticipated to equal the amount of the retainer; (b) the project shall be of a fixed duration and not anticipated to extend beyond 90-120 days; and (c) no refunds shall be given. For any additional services, the Firm has agreed to represent you conditioned that representation on you entering into an agreement after the filing of the case to pay the Firm for services to be rendered after the filing of the case, which were not identified in the "Scope of Flat-Fee Engagement" paragraph below. You understand that the Court may allow the Firm to withdraw from representing you on motion of the Firm if you refuse to enter into such an agreement. You agree to pay the firm an hourly fee of $495 with a $2,500 retainer for all other Chapter 7 related services not included in the Scope of Flat-Fee Engagement, including without limitation, any services relating to Rule 2004 examinations, motions to determine dischargeability, and motions to dismiss; you authorize the Firm attorneys to withdraw if you fail to pay the retainer or fail to pay any invoice within 30 days of issuance. See Local Rule 2091-1(B).

2. Scope of Flat-Fee Engagement: You have asked the Firm to assist you in filing a Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition. In this regard, the Firm will provide the following professional services:

- a. Represent you only. The Firm does not represent any spouse or intended beneficiaries.
- b. Advise you about the differences between bankruptcy Chapters 7, 11, 12, and 13.
- c. Advise you about your bankruptcy rights and responsibilities/obligations that arise both before filing bankruptcy and arise after the bankruptcy case is filed.
- d. Inform you about exempt assets, unsecured debt, and secured debt.
- e. Confer with you at the initial meeting and review paystubs tendered to me by you.
- f. Prepare draft petition, draft schedules, draft statement of affairs, and draft means test.
- g. Represent you at the initial Section 341 meeting of creditors (through me personally or through a representative).
- h. Provide a draft Section 707 "means test" calculation.

3. Services Outside Scope of Engagement: The scope of the Firm's representation is limited to the bankruptcy services set forth above. By way of example, the Firm has not been engaged to represent you in any tax issue, adversary proceeding, or appeal. The Firm has also not been engaged to file any motion to avoid a lien.

4. No Tax or Accounting Services: The Firm has NOT been engaged to provide any tax or accounting service. No tax returns will be prepared. No tax advice will be given. You are urged to engage a tax attorney or tax accountant that is unaffiliated with the Schaller Law Firm, P.C. prior to filing bankruptcy to provide tax advice, prepare tax returns, or complete a bankruptcy tax dischargeability analysis. Your tax liability (if you have any tax liability) may not be dischargeable by filing today; however, that tax liability (if any) may be dischargeable in the future if you delay your bankruptcy filing to a future date. Therefore, do not sign this engagement agreement authorizing the bankruptcy filing if you are filing bankruptcy in an attempt to discharge your tax liability; instead, delay your bankruptcy filing until a tax dischargeability analysis can be performed and sign a separate engagement letter authorizing a tax dischargeability analysis. The Firm has NOT provided any dischargeability analysis or rendered any opinion as to dischargeability of tax liability. Despite this warning, you are assuming the risk and authorizing the Firm to file a bankruptcy case today without the benefit of a tax dischargeability analysis.

5. No Student Loan Advice: The Firm has NOT been engaged to provide any student loan advice. You are urged to engage an unrelated student loan attorney to provide student loan advice prior to filing bankruptcy. You may be denied the right to obtain student loans if you file bankruptcy.

6. Home: No guarantee is provided. Chapter 7 is NOT designed to establish a repayment plan and you will NOT be allowed to prevent foreclosure or keep your home by filing this Chapter 7 bankruptcy.

7. Non-filing Spouse: If you are married, you have a choice to file bankruptcy in your name alone (i.e. "individually") or together with your spouse, if married (i.e. "jointly"). A spouse who is not added to the bankruptcy petition does NOT enjoy bankruptcy protection or benefits. Specifically, the non-filing spouse will not receive a "discharge" of any debts. Plus, the non-filing spouse will not be protected by the automatic stay and creditors of the non-filing spouse will be allowed to seek all legal remedies against the non-filing spouse.

If these arrangements meet with your approval, please sign this engagement letter and return it to the Firm with your retainer. Please do not sign this engagement letter if you are confused or do not understand any term. Before signing, I urge you to engage a different attorney to review and explain each and every provision.

Best Wishes,

SCHALLER LAW FIRM, P.C.

Mike
